Graduation

Regulations on English Proficiency Requirement for Graduation
Approved by the Institute Affairs Meeting on December 10, 2008
Revised on April 21, 2009 (Article 2)
Revised on December 25, 2012 (Title Revision)
Revised on March 14, 2023 (Article 3)
Revised on April 17, 2023 (Article 4)

Article 1

To enhance students' English proficiency and improve their competitiveness in employment and further education, the Graduate Institute of Library and Information Science (hereinafter referred to as "the Institute") has established these regulations.

Article 2

These regulations apply to students admitted from the 2010 academic year onwards.

Article 3

Before applying for the thesis defense, students must take one of the following English proficiency tests and meet the required minimum scores to fulfill the graduation requirement:

TOEFL ITP (Paper-based Test): 500 or above

TOEFL CBT (Computer-based Test): 173 or above

TOEFL iBT (Internet-based Test): 61 or above

IELTS: Band 5.0 or above

Cambridge English Qualifications (Cambridge Certificate): PET or above

TOEIC: 600 or above

General English Proficiency Test (GEPT): High-intermediate Level - First Stage (or above)

EnglishScore Core Skills Test: 300 or above

Article 4

Students who do not meet the requirements in Article 3 must take one of the following courses and obtain a grade of 70 or above. After approval by the Institute Affairs Meeting, this will be considered equivalent to passing the English proficiency requirement:

"English for Library and Information Science Professionals" (offered by the Institute)

"Practical English I-IV" (offered by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature or the Language Center)

"Advanced English"

"Intermediate English (a-d)"

"Basic English Writing (I)"

"Basic English Conversation (I-II)"

Article 5

Students who have studied in an English-speaking country for two or more years may submit supporting documents for approval by the Institute Director. Upon approval, they will be deemed to have met the English proficiency requirement.

Article 6

These regulations take effect upon approval by the Institute Affairs Meeting. Any amendments shall follow the same procedure.
